Dear Sir

Macquarie Harbour Mining Limited (MHM) – Voluntary Suspension

Macquarie Harbour Mining Limited (MHM or the Company) requests an immediate voluntary suspension of its securities pursuant to Listing Rule 17.2.

The Company is requests the voluntary suspension pending the receipt of executed legal agreements from the vendor in relation to a project acquisition, and subsequent announcement to the ASX.

MHM can see no reason why the voluntary suspension should not be granted or of any other information necessary to inform the market about the suspension. As the receipt of the signed legal agreements is not entirely in the control of MHM, a timeframe for the lifting of the voluntary suspension is not certain at this time. If the documents are not received, and announcement made prior to 12.00pm on Wednesday 16 December a further update will be provided at this time.

Yours sincerely

Ben Mead
Company Secretary
